LIU JO

ARCADIA

The chintz artwork originates in India, and has influenced countless Dutch print artists ever since its introduction in Europe in the 17th century. Gorgeous handpainted fabrics depicting the flora of far away places: the inspiration for this season's Arcadia collection. The bold artwork is characterized by striking leaf and flower patterns on a solid backdrop: a refreshing take on an existing narrative.

TROPICANA

The delicate Tropicana artwork finds its origin in the jungles of South Africa. Inspired by the actual African nature, LILIÓ combines the blossoming florals with certain stylistic elements of African printwork, such as the tiny dots that run all along the stems of the flowers and playfully cover the peddles. The backdrop is covered with a delicate line drawing that adds depth to the surface of the bag.

TULIPWOOD

Playfully naive; the Tulipwood gives a definite nod to the 70's. A wallpaper design; a small and condensed artwork depicting a graphic floral, is repeated in multitude on a structured polyester. The optimistic colorscheme gives a cheerfully sporty look to the compact accessories. The items come with a striped webbing, adding a suprise pop of color.
